Press Release

No leakage of All India Pre-Medical/Pre-Dental Entrance Test (AIPMT) -2015

There have been news reports recently, in certain section of media alleging leakage of AIPMT paper held on 3rd May 2015. It is informed in the interest of all the candidates who appeared in this examination and general public that there has been no leakage of the question paper what so ever. The examination started at 10 AM on 3rdMay 2015 as scheduled. No reports were received prior to the commencement of the examination, during the examination or after the examination from any quarter by the Board regarding the leakage as alleged, The first news report of this nature appeared only on 05th May 2015, after a lapse of two days.

In order to conduct a smooth and fair examination the Board had made elaborate arrangements including the deployment of City Coordinators, Observers, CentreSuperintendents., Invigilators, Police Personnel at each centre.There have been no reports of any untoward incidents at any centre reported by any other or these sources.

On careful study of the press reports it appears that the issue pertains to the use of unfair means and attempt to cheat by certain unscrupulous elements after the commencement of the paper. The Police department of the area is initiating suitable action as per law.

To alley the doubts of the candidates and general public, it is again reiterated that CBSE AIPMT 2015 was conducted in a smooth and a fair manner keeping the sanctity of examination intact.
